DECISION ON PETITION

The above-identified application has been forwarded to the undersigned for consideration on a petition for patent term adjustment entitled "Application for Patent Term Adjustment," received on September 19, 2011.

The request under 37 CFR 1.705 is dismissed.

Petitioner notes that the Notice of Allowance mailed on October 8, 2009, for the above-identified application improperly stated that the Patent Term Adjustment is 1847.¹ Petitioner contends that the instant application is entitled to either 3,512 days, 3,485 days or 3,300 days of patent term adjustment under the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 154(b).

35 U.S.C. § 154(b) (as amended by the "Uruguay Round Agreements Act," enacted December 8, 1994, as part of Public Law 103-465) provides for patent term extension for appellate review, interference and secrecy order delays in applications filed on or after June 8, 1995 and before May 29, 2000. 35 U.S.C. § 154 was amended by the "American Inventors Protection Act of 1999," which was enacted on November 29, 1999 as part of Public Law 106-113 (Consolidated Appropriations Act for Fiscal Year 2000).

The above-identified application was filed on June 4, 1999. Accordingly it is entitled to patent term extension based upon the conditions in 35 U.S.C. § 154(b), in effect on June 8, 1995. The provisions of 35 U.S.C. § 154(b) in effect on May 29, 2000 do not apply, because the amended version of 35 U.S.C. § 154(b) only applies to applications filed on or after May 29, 2000.

¹ The Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due stated that the Patent Term Extension is 1,826 day(s).

Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 154(b), in effect on June 8, 1995, an applicant can receive patent term extension only if there was an appellate review, interference or a secrecy order delays as set forth in the statute. The patent statute only permits extension of patent term based on very specific criteria. The Office has no authority to grant any extension or adjustment of the term due to administrative delays except as authorized by 35 U.S.C. § 154.

Petitioner's assertion that the application is eligible for patent term adjustment provisions pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 154 and 37 CFR 1.702 -1.705 is not persuasive. The effective date provision (§ 4405) in the legislation clearly states that the amendments to 35 U.S.C. § 154 apply to applications filed on or after the date that is 6 months after the date of enactment, i.e., May 29, 2000. This provision does not include applications that were filed prior to the date of enactment or even immediately after the date of enactment, but applications that were filed on or after the date that is 6 months after the date of enactment, see Changes to Implement Patent Term Adjustment under Twenty-Year Patent Term, 65 FR 56366 (Sept. 18, 2000) 1239 Off Gaz. Pat. Office Notices 14 (Oct. 3, 2000).²

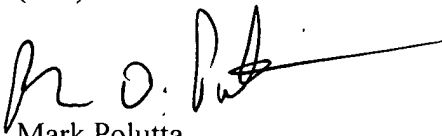

The delay in the allowance and issuance is regrettable, but the Office has no authority to grant an extension or adjustment of the term due to administrative delays except as authorized by 35 U.S.C. § 154(b).

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.701(b), the term of a patent under this section may be extended up to a maximum of five years. The patent term extension under 35 U.S.C. 154 and 37 CFR 1.701 is five (5) years.

The Office's electronic record (Patent Application and Location Monitoring system (PALM)) has been adjusted to show that five (5) years of patent term extension has been accrued to the above-identified application.

The rules and statutory provisions governing the operations of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office require payment of a fee on filing each petition. See 35 U.S.C. § 41 (a)(7). The required $200 fee for the request under 37 CFR 1.705 has been paid.
